Mr. Little agreed with Mr. Scalary and declared what it was too plain that Mc-Fall war triffling with the committee and the busic. He had charged that the committee was stocked and it was time that he be made to face the music.

Mr. Lame thought this master a complete farce. Had believed that the best course to pursue at the outset was to receive the statements of Mr. Palley and Abtorney General Smith and by resolution rejet the accusations made against them. Unless conditions changed he would insiet on closing the thing up tomorrow.

In Mr. Decke's opinion the committee had wasted enough time on McFall and it had played into his hands in doing so. It was his beitef that McFall would have been glad to have the committee vinpatch from the American correspondent of the London Times. Each takes exactly opposite views. The Associated Press is officially informed that neither can be taken to represent the government's views, for the excellent reasons that these views are not yet concentrated into a decision. The conferences so far field between United States Ambansador Choate and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs Lord Lansdowne have occurred at the instigation of the latter and were for the purpose of enlightening Lord Lansdowne on various technicalities so as to enable him to explain them to the cabinet meeting Friday. Until that is held, Great Britain's attitude will not beknown. Forecast thus develops into opequiation.
